President's Message

Hi everyone,

As we sat through our last (November) Committee meeting, I couldn't believe that we were already talking about Christmas Carols and plans for our New Year's Eve Dance, and at the end of the meeting, we were fixing a date for the AGM in March 2022. Where did the year go?

When you think about it, our Club has had an amazing and a most interesting year. While many other social clubs, faced with a second year of covid restrictions, simply put out the "closed for business, due to covid" shingle, we soldiered on with a full program of typical 'Silver Fawn' type events and activities with all the fun, frivolity, food, bingo, music and other 'good times' which characterise our Club.

First and foremost, I could not be more proud of our members who resoundingly supported everything that the Committee put on for the Club during the year. It would've been very easy for members to stay home and 'safe' given all the Covid stuff flying around, but thankfully, we didn't have to cancel a single function due to lack of interest and it says a lot about our Club, especially in challenging times. Sadly, the big one, our Dinner Dance went to the brink and left us gutted when we had to cancel, but even then, we all picked ourselves up and kept going. See what I mean? Nothing short of amazing!

Of course, I'm so very proud of our hard-working Committee too; it goes without saying that our club, and indeed any social club, operates on the goodwill of a handful of members prepared to give their time towards its management. The satisfaction we (on the Committee) receive is when we see members attending the activities we put on, and enjoying the camaraderie and friendships they have cultivated over some 50 years. So thank you once again members. You make it all worthwhile.

In my last report, I mentioned that the Committee was planning to do a 'call-around' to our members to get our membership records up-to-date, the main reason being to enable us to possibly communicate with all of you when needed, and more frequently and efficiently via email or SMS than merely through a Newsletter. Anyway, Susan has spent the last few weeks singlehandedly chasing up current emails and mobiles for all our members and has now completed this mammoth job. Thanks a heap Susan – top effort! At time of writing, we have 237 members and she is only missing the details of 2-3 members. We are now in a position to try using some technology to send out emails to everyone whenever needed. So expect that in the coming weeks, you'll start getting an email or two from the Silver Fawn Club updating you on events, reminding you of closing dates for booking and for other general information sharing.

In other Club news, our recent Halloween Dance was a real 'hoot' and a thoroughly enjoyable evening. This is one function where Denis was left with a much smaller bunch of Committee members and volunteers to help on the day for a variety of unforeseen reasons, but this did not deter us one bit. Great food thanks to Thilani, great décor supported by great costumes by everyone who attended, set the mood for the party. But the wonderful music from Cool Daddies and DJ Russell Lowe was the key attraction in my view. I think members have really been hanging out for a dance so much so that our attempts to run an elimination dance failed miserably simply because guests refused to be eliminated - they just wanted to keep dancing! Anyway, you can read more in Denis' report later in the Newsletter. Well done and thanks a lot Denis and all helpers.

We are putting the finishing touches to our two special events in December – our Christmas Carols on the 11th December and our New Years Eve Dance. Jeremy will be laying out one of his signature buffets for our Christmas Party complete with all the trimmings, while the New Years Eve Dance will see the return of the ever-popular Cool Daddies and DJ Ty Fox to help keep the party going and welcome in the new year. As always, early bookings are greatly appreciated.

At time of writing, our next bus trip is just a few days away and once again, we've had a great response from members. This time it is off to Maleny and Montville for the day and if the last bus trip was any guide, this trip should also be another great, fun day out for us all. Thanks in advance to Suzie for organising it all once again in her characteristic quiet, no-fuss manner. Much appreciated.

With the Christmas season around the corner, I find myself reflecting on what an eventful year it has been for my own family and how much I have to be grateful for. For our beloved Silver Fawn Club, I also feel a great sense of gratitude towards our lovely members and our wonderful Committee for a year when we all showed great resilience, camaraderie and goodwill towards each other. Have a happy, safe and relaxing Christmas season everyone.

With love and blessings to all. Keep well, stay safe and be kind to each other.

FUNCTION REPORT

HALLOWEEN DANCE - 23 OCTOBER 2021

When Frankie Valli sang 'Oh what a Night' all those years ago in our forgotten youth who would have thought he was talking about the Silver Fawn Halloween Night Dance a la 2021?? And what a night it was!

Cool Daddies and Russell Lowe had just the right non-stop combination of beautiful music and rock and roll which saw our 76 Halloween revellers trip the light fantastic and shake their booty right up until the witching hour. This writer still has the aching joints to bear testimony to the music which couldn't be refused! It was nice to welcome back Russell after a long absence from our events. He still remembers what we like to dance to! Of course Ray and Nigel Anthonisz are our very own and know how to get a Silver Fawn crowd dancing.

How wonderful it was to see the theme tap the creative dress sense of our members and guests. Ghoulish creatures abounded and saints and sinners in black and white disguise were everywhere. Presidential judging saw Alan Western and Cherry Schokman claim the golden Oscars and we were all glad we didn't have to make such a call from a field where everyone was a winner. Great raffle prizes topped off a good night for trophies and prizes.

Yes there were prizes for dancing competitions too. The Baila saw the Sri Lankan moves come to the fore, even though the winners were from Lankan and Indian shores. Sadly our Dancing with the Stars judge, Laurensz Manricks, struggled to find superlatives or even niceties to describe our Macarena efforts!

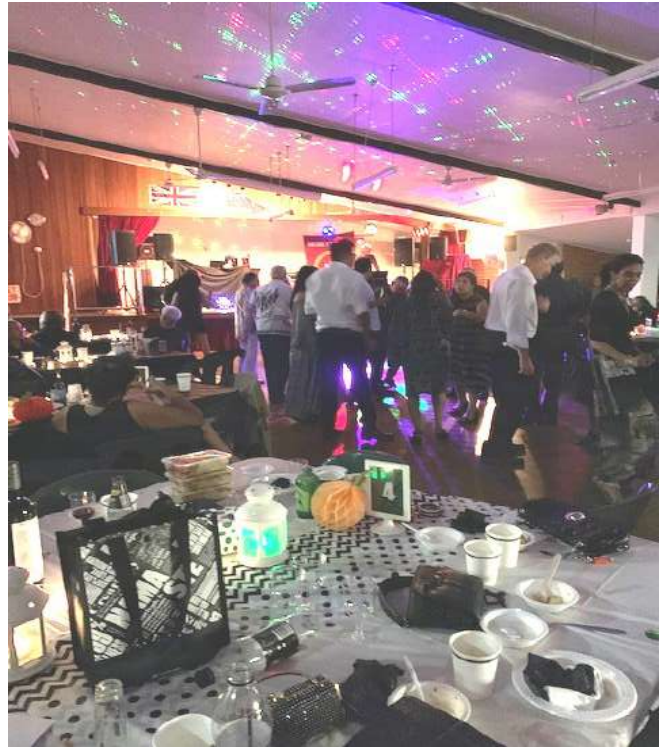

Thilani didn't disappoint with her delicious buffet of fried rice and noodles accompanied by Ceylon Beef Curry, Malaysian Devilled Chicken, Yellow Split Pea Curry, Devilled Potato, Eggplant Moju, Egg Salad, Chinese Chilli Paste and Pappadam. Cream Caramel did the trick for afters.

Amongst all the fun and excitement, there was a scene stealer of repute. His incursion amongst the dancers as an old and decrepit 'sinner' was an Academy Award winning performance and his Baila dancing superb...in a class of its own. What a revelation! Take a bow Fyri Fahir!!

Saints, sinners, ghoulish creatures and wonderful music....OH WHAT A NIGHT!

Life is too short to wake up in the morning with regrets. So, love the people who treat you right, forgive the ones who don't and believe that everything happens for a reason. If you get the chance, take it. If it changes your life, let it. Nobody said it would be easy, they just promised it would be worth it.
- Dr. Seuss

We are only given today and not ever promised tomorrow. Be sure to always tell the people who are special in your life how very much you love them!

Kelly's Treehouse

The Meaning of True Friendship

*Certain people touch our lives in really happy ways,
They're helpful and supportive,
They're the first with words of praise.
You know that they'll be there for you whatever knocks life sends,
They're funny, kind and thoughtful
And they're known as Special Friends.*

The Family Tree

*Our family is like the branches
On an old but sturdy tree
The leaves resemble people
That make up our ancestry
The past has not been easy
And it could have made it fall
But the roots are cemented firmly
For this tree to stand so tall
As time goes by it's certain
That the leaves will wither and wilt
But new branches of the tree will thrive
On foundations they have built
Together we are stronger
It isn't hard to see
That every leaf is needed
To make this family tree*
